

Terms & Conditions

By completing your registration and payment for MFAIC 2025, you acknowledge and agree to the following terms and conditions. Your registration and payment submission is deemed as acceptance of these terms. MFAIC 2025 retains the right to modify, update, or remove these terms at its discretion, with or without prior notice.

If you have any questions or require clarification regarding these terms, please reach out to:

1. Insurance

All delegates and speakers are responsible for securing their own insurance coverage for their participation in the conference.

MFAIC 2025 will not be liable for any injuries, losses, damages, accidents, delays, or other incidents arising from the negligence or failure of any individual or organization providing services related to the conference.

Furthermore, MFAIC 2025 is not accountable for any losses, injuries, damages, or expenses caused by factors such as illness, weather disruptions, strikes, civil disturbances, wars, terrorism, natural disasters, or any other circumstances beyond its control.

2. Cancellation Policy

2.1. Cancellation by the Delegate

If a delegate decides to cancel their registration, no refund will be provided, as the event's planning and commitments are already in place once registration is processed. Delegates are strongly advised to carefully assess their ability to attend before completing their registration and payment.

2.2. Cancellation of Travel and Accommodation

Delegates are solely responsible for managing and cancelling their own travel and accommodation arrangements.

2.3. Event Postponement

MFAIC 2025 will not be held responsible for any loss, damage, or inconvenience resulting from the postponement, modification, or cancellation of the event due to unforeseen circumstances or factors beyond MFAIC 2025's control.

3. Visas & Travel

Delegates are responsible for making their own travel and accommodation arrangements. They must ensure they comply with all visa requirements for entry into the host country and allow ample time for the visa application process. MFAIC 2025 can provide a letter of invitation upon request, if needed.

4. Payment & Registration
