3. Do I need to pay my course fee whilst applying for PTPTN loan?

Yes, until the letter of offer /loan agreement are signed and submitted, the University does not consider you as a PTPTN recipient and the semester course fee needs to be settled. Confirmation of PTPTN loan is based solely on the official Disbursement List sent by PTPTN to Curtin University, Malaysia. Every semester payment will be disbursed and manage by PTPTN Office.

4. Once I am confirmed a PTPTN recipient, do I still need to pay my course fee in advance if I Continue to enroll with the University? What if my semester course fee is higher/lower than the PTPTN installment?

As long as you are an eligible PTPTN recipient, having an active enrolment, obtain GPA 2.0 and above, you can pay the difference of your PTPTN installment before the payment due date. Payment after due date will incur a late payment penalty fee and campus facilities maybe barred until the balance is settled. You can pay the balance once disbursement of PTPTN installment is made. Please refer to Cashier Office for confirmation of fees at finance@curtin.edu.my

5. When is the expected disbursement of my PTPTN installment and how is it effected?

PTPTN usually disburses the loan installments around end of MAY and end of October. Disbursement of loan each semester will be directly to student personal bank account. It is student responsibility to check your bank account regularly and settled the remaining outstanding fee.

6. What would happen to my PTPTN installment if I do not do well in a particular semester examination?

PTPTN recipient must maintain minimum GPA 2.00 every semester. Failure to achieved the minimum requirement, PTPTN will not disburse the loan for the following semester. In this case, you will need to settle the outstanding amount with the University directly. If the amount is not settled, your student account will be sanctioned.
